

Summer Reading Programs

Epic Books for Kids

Epic Books is a resource for teachers and parents to provide kids with a large amount of online books. The website charges $4.99/ month, but is offering a free 60 day trial. Go to www.getepic.com/promo and enter the phrase "EPICREADS" to receive the free trial.

York County Libraries

All York County libraries offer a free summer reading program for children. This year, the online registration begins May 16th (www.yorklibraries.org). In the past, kids earned small prizes for reading books throughout the summer and were able to put their name in a drawing for larger prizes at the end of the summer. The theme this year is On your mark, get set... READ!

Books a Million

Books a Million runs a summer reading program every year based around a theme. The 2016 theme hasn't been posted online yet, but should arrive soon. Last year, students who read at least four books from an approved list received a prize.

Banks

Many banks offer a summer reading incentive where they will deposit money into a "young savers" bank account after your child has read a certain number of books.
